Spot Checking

Food ★ Fun ★ Frolic

Pleuvoir...Pleuvoir... in Torrents!!!

Yes, it's coming down in Torrance . . . and Redondo Beach . . . and Lomita . . . and even in Palos Verdes! And of course by the time this comes out it'll probably be bright and sun-shiny but right now on Blue Monday ayem . . . WOOSCH!!!

When it rains, though, there's one consolation and that is that you're never at a loss for a spot for lunch or dinner in the Southland.

Take for example, over there on Pacific Coast Highway at the entrance to the Torrance Airport . . . The Halfway House where there are no half-way measures in either the food or the drinks. They've got some wild swingin' luncheons to offer you there such as that Yankee Pot Roast for one-fifty or the Grilled Sword fish at the same price. Or if you're counting pennies instead of calories you can go for the Spaghetti Italiane for a quarter less. And on the luncheon specials at the Halfway House a choice of soup or salad plus potatoes is included.

Now supposing you're up "on the Hill" in Peninsula Center and that California dew is coming down, there's always The Red Onion at 277-36 Silver Spur Road for some exciting Mexican food and tails 'Barman Ronnie puts where you may enjoy a delightful Martini before your nooday repast. Here, too, they don't spare the horses when they present their quality and ample quantity in either the main dining room or whatever you have from the comfortable and friendly little Cantina Room in the rear.

Owner-operator Bart Earle has a seven-day-a-week policy at the Red Onion plus a gigantic cocktail hour from toodle-seven for your enjoyment and convenience. So go ahead on and take advantage of these fine people. They won't mind a bit.

Then back down once again into Torrance on Crenshaw just beyond Pacific Coast Highway is The Tea House, where you'll find the most exotic of Polynesian cocktails as well as Family Style Dinners from $1.85. (That's for the little braves and squaws, and high chairs for the papooses and all at reasonable prices.

BOX THE COMPASS AND AVAST! . . . "Time Tunnel" star Lee Meriweather along with hubby Frank Aletter and daughters Kyle and Leslie, enjoy an afternoon of "cruising" aboard the S. S. Princess Louise on the Terminal Island side of Los Angeles Harbor, following their leisurely luncheon on the 330 foot former luxury liner.

Well if you're just "pleasure bent" . . . and you dig folk music why not take a whirl around to The Plush Plush at 29217 So. Western in Rolling Hills.

This coming Friday and Saturday it's Sue Mack and her Guitar along with Tim McGeery for your folksy entertainment.

Then the following weekend, the 18th and 19th, it'll be Lee Elliot. The Greenwich Meantimes who opened last weekend, have been held over as has Barry "H" so here might be a swinger for you.

The Plush Plush is the South Bay's only contemporary folk house offering continuous entertainment every Friday and Saturday nite.

Fine Arts Class for Adults Set

Are you attempting to build a fine classical record collection? Planning a trip to the art museum or music center? Have you ever wanted to know more about understanding the world's great music and art?

Torrance adult education is offering a unique course this semester designed to increase appreciation of art and music. "Art Horizons," a survey especially designed to add understanding to appreciation of art and music is being taught at West High School Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9:30 by Donnelly Fenn.

Fenn is West High's choral music director and fine arts teacher and holds degrees from Occidental College and California State College at Long Beach. He was musical director for "Bye-Bye Birdie," the Torrance Recreation Department's summer musical.

Interested persons are asked to contact the Adult Education office or to attend class on Tuesday evenings in room 5213 at West High.

Narbonne Club To See Films

The next Narbonne High School Booster Club meeting will be Tuesday.

Two sets of films will be shown. They will be Narbonne vs. Jordan and Narbonne vs. San Pedro.

Both will be narrated by Coach Bobinette.
